Colleagues:

After discussing with President Caboni what would be in WKU's best interest, I have made the difficult decision to step down as Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs, effective immediately. I will be serving as Assistant to the President for Special Initiatives until August 30, 2020, after which I will assume regular, full time faculty status as a tenured, full Professor in the Department of Modern Languages.

Serving as your Provost has been both an honor and a privilege, and I am proud of the things we have accomplished this year.

I remain confident in the future of WKU. This is a remarkable, student-centered institution, and our students will continue to enjoy the transformative educational opportunities that are a hallmark of the WKU experience.

Thank you again for the opportunity to serve the Hilltopper family.

Sincerely,

Terry Ballman
Provost & Vice President for Academic Affairs
